INSURGENT PRISONERS CONSIGNED TO PRISON SHIPS AT CHERBOURG—THE CASE OF THE ORLEANS PRINCES BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY—HENRI ROCHEFORT STILL ALIVE—VICTOR HUGO IN LONDON.

LONDON, Friday, June 2, 1871.

Two thousand Communists will be imprisoned in the hulks at Cherbourg. Six hundred have already arrived at that port.

In the Assembly, to-day, M. Brunet moved the abrogation of the proscription law as incompatible with republicanism and subversive only to dynastic passions and hatreds. Urgency for the motion was voted. Several members of the Right moved the abrogation of the laws specially directed against the Bourbons. One of the Deputies, speaking in support of the motion, confirmed the report of the fusion of the two branches of the House of Bourbon. A resolution of urgency was also adopted in this case.

The question of the validity of the election of the Prince de Joinville and Duke d'Anjou will be discussed on Monday next in the Assembly, when it is probable the fusion of the two branches of the House of Bourbon will be officially announced.

Leopold Rochefort is to be tried by Military Commission to-morrow, on the charge of inciting civil war and piracy.

The search for concealed arms continues in Paris. The French press still discusses the question of the future character of the Government, and are nearly unanimous for a Republic. The Journal des Débats says the men of the 6th of September have outlived their time. Other papers support Thiers and the Republic, protest against monarchical intrigues, and demand the transfer of the Assembly to Paris. The Gazette says Paris must submit to the will of France. The Sidére advocates extensive decentralization of the Administration. The Journal des Débats expresses its astonishment at the persistence of the Assembly in holding aloof from Paris. The Paris Journal considers the appointment of M. Lefranc to the Ministry of the Interior and of M. Ferry to the Minister of the Seine, to be the reply of M. Thiers to the intrigues of the Orleanists.

A letter from the Sub-Governor of the Bank of France states that he was forced to advance various sums of money to the Commune. No armed force, however, encircled the Bank, and none of its securities were destroyed, thanks to the courage of the members of the Commune remaining in Paris, of the employes of the Bank, and of M. Besley, a member of the Commune.

A dispatch from Havre says that 8,000,000 francs have been paid to the Germans for the maintenance of their army in the vicinity of Paris. Insurgent prisoners are arriving at Rouen. M. Victor Hugo is in London.

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE MINISTER FROM PARAGUAY DECLARED TO BE A BRITISH SUBJECT.

LONDON, Friday, June 2, 1871.

In the House of Commons last night Viscount Enfield stated that the Government could not receive Mr. Stuart as Minister from Paraguay because he was a British subject. A motion to abolish the office of Lord Privy Seal was lost. Adjourned.

PORUGAL.

A DISSOLUTION OF THE MINISTRY.

LISBON, Friday, June 2, 1871.

The discussions in the Cortes having shown that the Ministry is in a minority upon marine affairs, a dissolution has consequently been ordered, and the new elections will be held in July.

TURKEY.

A NEW LOAN GUARANTEED BY EGYPT.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Friday, June 2, 1871.

A Turkish loan of £6,000,000 sterling has been concluded, the payment of which is guaranteed by the Egyptian tribute.

THE NEW DOMINION.

THE PRESS ON THE TREATY.

OTTAWA, June 2.—The Times (a Government organ), speaking of the Washington Treaty and the explanations expected from Sir John A. Macdonald, says:

"The Premier considers the time for explanations not yet arrived, and the negotiations will be continued by Her Majesty's Commissioners with the Commission until it is disposed of. The public discussions on the negotiation at Washington would be obviously impudent if they were to continue as a whole, but Sir John A. Macdonald as First Minister, are committed to the Treaty. They have taken care to reserve to themselves most complete freedom of action in the matter."

GERMANY ABOUT TO ANEX LUXEMBURG.

Permittee (May 15). Correspondence of The London Times.

There is one point of the Treaty which may be more formal than the rest, and that is the question for the ratification of our Legislature is not a mere formality; but the question of the frontier, as defined by Her Majesty's Commissioners with the Commission will continue to exist. Until it is disposed of, the public discussions on the negotiation at Washington would be obviously impudent if they were to continue as a whole, but Sir John A. Macdonald as First Minister, are committed to the Treaty. They have taken care to reserve to themselves most complete freedom of action in the matter."

THE ROTHSCILDS OFFER TO TAKE THE DEBT OF NEW-YORK CITY.

A project to get the consolidated debt of the city taken up by foreign bankers has been under consideration for some years among New-York officials. The plan appears to be on the eve of consummation. The Frankfort branch of the House of Rothschild has proposed to take this debt as the securities are issued, and pay the old loans as they fall due. The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund were considering the proposition yesterday, but no important decision was reached. Commissioner Connelly says that the arrangement will be consummated if the Rothschild will agree to proper terms, as he thinks they will. If it is done at all, it will be by six per cent gold bonds to run about 25 years. The same Commissioner makes very light of the city debt, and says he can prove that it can be paid in eight years by means of the sinking fund.
